

AUDIO-VISUAL

Doctor Who / BBC Video
DVD

After watching this show for over a year, I still cannot properly explain this show to anyone. It will make you laugh, cry, lose sleep, and punch the wall. I love this show too much.

(Christa from RSV)

Firefly: The Complete Series / Twentieth Century Fox Home Entertainment
BD, DVD

I remember watching this series through in two days, and then again a week later. This cancelled Western/Sci-fi/Japanese show that only lasted one season needs to grace your television.

(Christa from RSV)

Gravity / Alfonso Cuarón
BD, DVD

A visually stunning portrayal of a tragic event in space, set in our technological era. Clooney plays the sure and 'charming American' veteran Astronaut with aplomb, while Bullock's grief-ridden scientist evokes sympathy as she navigates crisis after crisis on her maiden voyage in space.

(Ken SLC)

Her / Warner Bros. Entertainment
BD, DVD

This is so much more than "man falls in love with computer." It's funny, sad, surprisingly sexy, and a terrific meditation on the nature of relationships and the alienation of the digital age.

(Lauren from SLC)

Jack Ryan: Shadow Recruit / Paramount Pictures Corporation
BD, DVD

Generic action thriller based on the Tom Clancy character. Worthwhile watching for the noted director of Shakespearean plays and other films to also do a turn as the villain!

(Dominic from ROG)

Mandatory Fun / "Weird Al" Yankovic
CD

The parodist with longevity returns! Although his polka medley of contemporary hits is hilarious, "First World Problems", a style parody of the alternative rock group The Pixies, is particularly recommended.

(Dominic from ROG)

My Cousin Vinny / 20th Century Fox Home Entertainment
DVD

Who do you call when two youths are mistakenly charged with murder? My Cousin Vinny, of course! It has great acting and comedic timing.

(Holly C. from TPL/Librarian)

True Detective / Nic Pizzolatto

BD, DVD

Set in the eerie Louisiana countryside, this moody buddy detective story will have you on edge as they uncover a chilling, dark conspiracy. Harrelson and McConaughey play brilliantly off each other with their divergent characters. This series had me glued from the title song.

(Ken SLC)

FICTION

The Accident: A Novel / Chris Pavone

BCD, EB, FIC, LT

I read this book in a day! Could not put it down! Action packed and a fascinating look at the inside of the publishing world; highly recommended.

(Cathy Russ, Library Director, Troy Public Library)

The Accident: A Novel / Chris Pavone

BCD, EB, FIC, LT

Manuscript that could implicate big time media mogul falls in the hands of literary agent and suddenly people are after her.

(Kathy from WCV)

Agnes & the Hitman / Jennifer Crusie

BCD, FIC, LT

This is a great romantic comedy about a cranky food writer and a hit man running out of luck. This is Chick-lit at its best.

(Holly C. from TPL/Librarian)

Among Others / Jo Walton

BCD, EB, FIC

This is an affection ode to SF lovers with a twist of magical realism. Teenage Morwenna must come to terms with the death of her sister, growing up and magic.

(Sarah from RSV)

Bellman & Black: A Ghost Story / Diane Setterfield

BCD, FIC, LT

This novel, set in the late Victorian era, focuses on death. Despite the dark overarching theme, the language is clear and lyrical. The book asks the reader to consider the consequences of thoughtless actions, as well as considered choices.

(Michelle from SCS)

Blood Oath / Christopher Farnsworth

EB, FIC, PL

Zach Barrows is a White House staffer who is unexpectedly partnered with Nicholas Cade, a secret agent (who also is a vampire) sworn to protect the President.

(Kristen from RSV)

Calling Invisible Women / Jeanne Ray
EB, FIC

A fun, yet meaningful read about the people we take for granted.
(Ellen from Clinton-Macomb)

Carthage: a Novel / Joyce Carol Oates
BCD, FIC, LT

Teenaged Cressida disappears into the Adirondacks, and a disabled Iraq War vet confesses to her apparent murder. This well written page turner addresses PTSD, family jealousies, the workings of the justice system, and the ugliness of war.

(Debbie from SHL)

The Children Act: A Novel / Ian McEwan
BCD, EB, FIC

A quick read by a terrific writer: Court room drama coupled with the emotional breakdown of a 30 year marriage. McEwan never lets you down.

(Bill at RSV)

Delicious / Ruth Reichl
BCD, EB, FIC, LT

Wonderful story for "foodies" and those who enjoy books dealing with families, overcoming obstacles, and following your passions. It is told from the perspective of a young woman with a very gifted palate, leaving her home in San Francisco to become a food magazine editor. She has to start a new life, negotiate New York and answer questions from callers who try unsuccessfully to follow the magazine's recipes. I thoroughly enjoyed this book in the spring.

(Kathy Nuss from CLL/ Collection Assistant)

Faith: a Novel / Jennifer Haigh
BCD, EB, FIC, LT

A Boston Catholic family is rocked by accusations that their brother, a priest, has molested a young boy. It is very suspenseful, as the truth is doled out slowly and expertly. Everyone has secrets and pain in their pasts. It is eye opening, with lots to think about.

(Debbie from SHL)

The Fever: A Novel / Megan Abbott
BCD, EB, FIC

What happens to high school girls when they seem to catch one another's symptoms? And there seems to be no cure. This noir take on events that happened in a small town in New York is a can't-put-it-down read. Megan Abbott is a native Michigander who is being recognized nationally for her unique take on crime fiction.

(Kathy from ROG/Librarian)

Flowers for Algernon / Daniel Keyes

FIC

This is a classic novel that has a lot to say about life, love and loss, as well as a fascinating tale of self-discovery and learning to forgive.

(Ed Mandel from CHE)

The Goblin Emperor / Katherine Addison

FIC

A perfect cross-over book if you think you don't enjoy Fantasy - try this one! It is for young adults, too.

(Beth from CMPL)

Gods of Gotham / Lyndsay Faye

BCD, EB, FIC

If you've read Caleb Carr's The Alienist, you will really enjoy this book. A mystery that takes place during the forming of the New York City Police Department, the book is historically accurate, and thrilling. It will keep you on the edge of your seat!

(Dianne from WCV)

Gone Girl / Gillian Flynn

BCD, EB, FIC, LT

Suspense!!! Keeps you interested all the way through with twists and surprises.

(Beverley Ortman from RSV/Clerk)

Gone Girl / Gillian Flynn

BCD, EB, FIC, LT

This book is one you can't put down, as it leaves you wondering what happens next with every turn of a page.

(Erin Krieg from WAM)

The House of the Four Winds / Mercedes Lackey

FIC

This is the first of what promises to be another great adventure series for Mercedes Lackey. Princess Clarice is the eldest of her family, and thus the first to set out on adventure - in her case, on the high seas!

(Miss Jennie from WAM)

The Invention of Wings / Sue Monk Kidd

BCD, EB, FIC, LT

This novel about slavery and feminism is set in Charleston during early 1800's and is loosely based on the life of Sarah Grimke, abolitionist and feminist.

(Jackie from RSV)

Lock In / John Scalzi

FIC

This has a wonderfully clever blend of SF, mystery, and corporate terrorism.

Narrated by FBI Agent/Haden's survivor Chris Shane, Lock In is the story of the aftermath of disease and government's failings.

(Sarah from RSV)

The Longest Ride / Nicholas Sparks
BCD, EB, FIC, LT

The best Sparks book to date! Two stories intertwine with a surprising ending you're guaranteed to love.

(Erin Krieg from WAM)

The Maid's Version / Daniel Woodrell
BCD, FIC, LT

This story, by the author of Winter's Bone, is set around the 1929 Arbor Dance Hall Explosion in a small Missouri town. Alma DeGeer Dunahew lost her vibrant sister Ruby in the disaster. In this twisting "who done it", the answer lies close to home. Woodrell is an incredible writer who makes fiction believable.

(Cynthia at SCS)

The Martian / Andy Weir
EB, FIC

What happens when you accidentally get left on Mars? This is a super great hard SF novel. Weir's novel is a fun, though stressful, adventure story with a side of MacGyver in space.

(Sarah from RSV)

The Martian / Andy Weir
EB, FIC

An expedition to Mars goes slightly wrong when one of the astronauts is left behind.

(Beth from CMPL)

Me before You / Jojo Moyes
EB, FIC, LT

This heartbreaking, life-affirming love story leaves the reader pondering life's big questions for weeks after.

(Katie from Shelby Township)

Midnight Riot / Ben Aaronovitch
EB, FIC

A London police officer dreams of being a detective. However, he learns he can talk to ghosts and gets assigned to a secret police unit that solves uncanny and magical crimes.

(Kristen from RSV)

Mr. Mercedes / Stephen King
BCD, EB, FIC, LT

Mr. Mercedes is a war between good and evil, from the master of suspense whose insight into the mind of this obsessed, insane killer is unforgettable.

(Chris from SLC)

Mr. Mercedes / Stephen King
BCD, EB, FIC, LT

A retired detective who gets re-involved in an old case he had worked on. Twists and turns in a suspenseful story that keeps you wondering how it will end.

(Nancy from SLC)

Mrs. Jeffries Pleads Her Case / Emily Brightwell
FIC

This book is part of a series of English mysteries. All are good.
(Beverley Ortman from RSV/Clerk)

Only Time Will Tell / Jeffrey Archer
BCD, EB, FIC, LT

This is an entertaining history of two families going back to the 1800's. The first sentence of the prelude will grab you and keep your interest from volume one through four.

(Mary Admin. Asst. from CHE)

Outlander / Diana Gabaldon
BCD, EB, FIC

Claire Randall, a World War II nurse, on a second honeymoon, is transported through an ancient stone to 1743 Scotland. She is torn between her husband in the future and her love in the past, James Fraser: Now a hit series on Starz.

(Alicia from CMS)

The Presence / John Saul
BCD, EB, FIC, LT

This book is suspenseful with a little bit of sci-fi feel to it. Set in the islands of Hawaii.

(Nancy from SLC)

The Reckoning / Rennie Airth
EB, FIC

In 1947, retired Scotland Yard Inspector John Madden is drawn into a series of seemingly unrelated up close killings because of a letter in which his name is mentioned by one of the victims. His legendary memory does not enable him to connect the deceased's name with that of anyone he has ever met. Yet, he feels he must be a link. But it goes back to another, earlier, war to find the answer and the killer.

(Marj Murray from CLL)

The Rosie Project / Graeme Simsion
BCD, EB, FIC, LT

Don is a brilliant but socially awkward geneticist who has decided it's time to find a wife. So begins the "Wife Project". An endearing book where Don learns you may not be able to use science to find love.

(Tracy from RSV)

The Round House / Louise Erdrich
BCD, EB, FIC, LT

This is a perfect coming-of-age novel as well as an examination of different cultures. The investigation of an assault on an Indian reservation keeps the reader engrossed to the end.

(Ed Mandel from CHE)

The Secret Place / Tana French

BCD, EB, FIC, LT

A murder investigation at a girls' private school in Ireland, and all the action takes place in under 24 hours, leaving this reader breathless.

(Beth from CMPL)

The Sense of an Ending / Julian Barnes

BCD, EB, FIC, LT

This book underlines the importance of not judging people or situations until you know the whole story. It is also a great examination of how perceptions change over the decades.

(Ed Mandel from CHE)

Son of No One / Sherrilyn Kenyon

BCD, EB, FIC

This latest in the Dark Hunter series ties in favorite characters from past books and hints at future stories to be told!

(April from WAM)

Still Life with Bread Crumbs: A Novel / Anna Quindlen

BCD, EB, FIC, LT, PL

60-year-old photographer totally changes her life moving to tiny house in the country. Well written, good characters. "Quindlen's astute observations . . . are the sorts of details every writer and reader lives for."—Chicago Tribune

(Kathy from WCV)

The Storied Life of A.J. Fikry: A Novel / Gabrielle Zevin

BCD, EB, FIC, LT

A. J. Fikry has had a few tough years: his wife has died and his bookstore is not doing well. Then a mysterious package is left at his shop, giving AJ the chance to make his life over.

(Tracy from RSV)

This House is Haunted / John Boyne

EB, FIC

Jane Eyre meets the paranormal world in this tale. Governess Eliza Caine takes on two children, Isabella and Eustace, and a family harboring strange secrets. This is a fun read with a ghostly twist.

(Cynthia at SCS)

Those Who Wish Me Dead / Michael Koryta

EB, FIC

A young teen witnesses a crime and is sent into the witness protection program for his safety. This leads him to a wilderness survival camp where he learns more skills than he ever knew he needed. Michael Koryta creates another great suspense novel.

(Kathy from ROG/Librarian)

The Twelve Tribes of Hattie: A Novel / Ayana Mathis
BCD, EB, FIC, LT

Young newlyweds, Hattie and August, leave the South and start raising their large, growing family in 1920s Philadelphia. Each chapter covers the story of one of their children (as child or adult), moving into the 1960s and how racial and social issues affect their lives. Loved it! This is an Oprah Book Club selection.

(Debbie from SHL)

An Unwilling Accomplice / Charles Todd
BCD, EB, FIC

Beth Crawford is a battlefield nurse in war-torn WWI England. In this series, we see that she always takes that one step into a mystery. Home on leave from her duties in France, she is to accompany a wounded, wheelchair bound hero so he can receive his medal from the king. But he turns up missing the next day. Has this patient in her charge committed murder, as is suspected? It looks like it! And she must find him, for her fine reputation is at stake.

(Marj Murray from CLL)

What Alice Forgot / Liane Moriarty
EB, FIC

One of the best books I've read all year--funny, sad, and thought-provoking all at once, and a real page-turner: Highly recommended.

(Cathy Russ, Library Director, Troy Public Library)

What is Visible: A Novel / Kimberly Elkins
FIC

This is a wonderful true life story of Laura Bridgeman, a deaf and blind girl who endures much after losing all of her senses, but her sense of touch. She is truly a remarkable woman. She will touch your heart. After reading this book you will understand more than you ever knew about a deaf or blind person. They have the same feelings of love, hate, wonder and joy and find ways to convey this to others. A great read.

Educational, enjoyable and entertaining!

(Joann Penrod, Circulation Clerk CLL)

What is Visible: A Novel / Kimberly Elkins
FIC

Laura Bridgman was once the most famous woman in the world. She was the first deaf-blind person to be educated. Elkins' novel imagines a compelling voice for a largely forgotten but infinitely fascinating figure.

(Sarah from ROG)

While Beauty Slept / Elizabeth Blackwell
FIC

This is a retelling of Sleeping Beauty from the point of view of a servant. As an old woman she tells her great-granddaughter about what really happened in the fairy tale because she lived it.

(Kathy from WCV)

NON-FICTION

Book Girl's Guide to Cocktails for Book Lovers / Tessa Smith-McGovern
NONFIC

This collection features 50 original and classic cocktail recipes based on the works of famous authors and popular drinks of their times. Among the authors are Charlotte Bronte, Willa Cather, Charles Dickens, Ernest Hemingway, Wally Lamb, Alice Munro, Matthew Quick, and Anne Tyler.

(Suzanne Kent from HPW)

Cat Sense: How the New Feline Science Can Make You a Better Friend to Your Pet / John Bradshaw

LT, NONFIC

With his common-sense approach, Anthrozoologist Bradshaw, author of Dog Sense also, educates us about the science behind the world's most popular pet - the cat.

(Jackie from RSV)

The Devil in the White City: Murder, Magic, and Madness at the Fair that Changed America / Erik Larson

BCD, EB, LT, NONFIC

This is nonfiction that reads like a great mystery/thriller. You will race through the pages to find out what happens next: A fascinating look at late 1800s America.

(Ed Mandel from CHE)

Everything I Need to Know I Learned From a Little Golden Book / Diane Muldrow

NONFIC

This charming book is a "guide to life" for adults based on the popular series of children's books called The Little Golden Books. Baby Boomers will love it!

(Suzanne Kent from HPW)

The Five Love Languages / Gary Chapman

BCD, NONFIC

This book is a great way to learn how to effectively communicate and interact in professional, personal, family, and intimate relationships. It also gives you a greater insight into yourself and why you react to certain behaviors.

(Monique Jones from RSV)

Gulp: Adventures on the Alimentary Canal / Mary Roach

BCD, LT, NONFIC

Learn about what is happening in the digestive track in this highly entertaining and enjoyable book that may or may not influence your dietary behavior.

(Ed Mandel from CHE)

Internal Medicine: A Doctor's Stories / Terry Holt
NONFIC

Wonderfully written, absorbing stories that stay with you long after the book is closed. Holt may be writing from real experiences but it reads like terrific fiction.
(Bill at RSV)

The Last of the Doughboys: The Forgotten Generation and Their Forgotten World War / Richard Rubin
BCD, NONFIC

The author spends the first part of the 2000's traveling the USA to speak with the last surviving veterans of WWI.
(Kristen from RSV)

Mona Lisa in Camelot: How Jacqueline Kennedy and Da Vinci's Masterpiece Charmed and Captivated a Nation / Margaret Davis
NONIC

This engrossing book recounts the many incredible details of how the 1963 American exhibition of Da Vinci's Mona Lisa came to fruition; and the incredible part First Lady Jacqueline Kennedy played in order to make it all possible.
(Amy from SLC)

My Accidental Jihad: A Love Story / Krista Bremer
EB, LT, NONFIC

This fascinating and touching memoir of an inter-cultural marriage will leave you hoping this couple succeeds and that the author writes a sequel!
(Katie from Shelby Township)

My Life in Middlemarch / Rebecca Mead
EB, NONFIC

Whether you loved or have not yet read the novel Middlemarch (by George Eliot) you should pick up this dazzling memoir/literary analysis of a classic.
(Michelle from SCS)

One Summer : America, 1927 / Bill Bryson

BCD, LP, NONFIC

A nostalgic look back on a pivotal period of early twentieth century America. The summer of 1927 was arguably the country at it's most earnest and hopeful. What fascinated me was that many of the issues they struggled with then are still being debated present day.
(Ken SLC)

Privacy in the Age of Big Data: Recognizing Threats, Defending Your Rights, and Protecting Your Family / Theresa Payton
NONFIC

This book offers insightful and concrete tips for addressing technology and privacy concerns. It is recommended for inquirers concerned about the Snowden NSA disclosures and related affairs, as well as general technophiles.
(Dominic from ROG)

Saturday Night Widows: The Adventures of Six Friends Remaking Their Lives /
Becky Aikman
BCD, EB, NONFIC

One of the most accurate portrayals of young widowhood: If you are a young widow, know a young widow or just want to understand widows, this book is a must read.

(Sheri from SBL)

The Sixth Extinction: An Unnatural History / Elizabeth Kolbert
BCD, NONFIC

This is a fascinating investigation into why species have disappeared in the past, why they are disappearing now, and how humans factor in significantly.

(Beth from CMPL)

Surprise-Inside Cakes: Amazing Cakes for Every Occasion—With a Little Something Extra Inside / Amanda Rettke
NONFIC

This book is stuffed with cake recipes that feature creative and colorful surprises in the centers. The baking skill levels range from easy to difficult, and there are ideas for all occasions. The rainbow heart cake on the cover is my favorite!

(Bethany from SHL)

Travels with Casey / Benoit Denizet-Lewis
EB, NONFIC

For dog-lovers, dog-admirers and the dog obsessed, this romp of a road-trip travelogue satisfies all your tail-wagging, slobbery kisses and furry happiness needs.

(Katie from Shelby Township)

CHILDREN/YA

The Adventures of Beekle: The Unimaginary Friend / Dan Santat
FIC

Tired of waiting to be picked as an imaginary friend, Beekle goes on an adventure in search of a friend to call his own: Good for story times.

(Abby from EPL)

The Book with No Pictures / B.J. Novak
FIC

This is an imaginative and fun picture book without any pictures.

(Holly C. from TPL/Librarian)

Curse of the Thirteenth Fey: The True Tale of Sleeping Beauty / Jane Yolen
FIC

Another amazing story from the pen of Jane Yolen set in modern times. You will get no chores done until you finish. This is an amazingly wonderful book.

(Loretta at FRA & RSV)

Divergent / Veronica Roth
BCD, EB, FIC, LT, PL

This is suspenseful, adventurous, thrilling, and romantic. How could you not love this engaging trilogy?

(Erin Krieg from WAM)

Fair is Fair: World Folktales of Justice / Sharon Creeden
NONFIC

Written by an attorney this book gives you a new perspective on well-known tales from around the world, using tales to illuminate important cases and legal issues.

(Loretta at FRA & RSV)

The Fault in Our Stars / John Green
BCD, BD, EB, FIC, PL

Although the story is sad, it is not depressing. The author is very insightful when it comes to what a cancer patient is experiencing. It is a comedy and tragedy rolled into one. The characters are exceptionally mature given they are teenagers. It has recently been made into a movie.

(Rita from RSV)

The Giver / Lois Lowry
BCD, EB, FIC, PL

Born into a life of "sameness" the main character is chosen to retain the memories of the past and learns that the world is a place filled with wonders he never knew existed, both good and bad.

(Nancy from SLC)

Illusion / Sherrilyn Kenyon
BCD, EB, FIC

The Chronicles of Nick series always keeps you guessing and looking forward to the next book.

(April from WAM)

Looks like Daylight: Voices of Indigenous Kids / Deborah Ellis
NONFIC

Loriene Roy, former ALA President, and Deborah Ellis interviewed Indigenous teens around the country who live on or near reservations, including several in Michigan and Sarnia, Ontario. Their life experiences are challenging and different than teens in urban areas. This is an important book to help young adults bridge the differences that still exist with Native Americans.

(Cynthia at SCS)

The One and Only Ivan / Katherine Applegate
BCD, EB, FIC

Although this is considered a children's book, I think it could be considered YA because it's a book about art, self-hood, relationships, coming of age. A true heart-warmer that also makes you think.

(Michelle from SCS)

Out of My Mind / Sharon M. Draper
EB, FIC

"Eleven-year-old Melody has a photographic memory. Her head is like a video camera that is always recording, always. And there's no delete button. She's the smartest kid in the whole school-but NO ONE knows it...If only she could tell people what she thinks and knows." At last someone takes the time to find a machine which will allow her to speak for the first time. It is a miracle unfolding to the reader but not to everyone in her school who hears her at last. This reader found herself cheering Melody on as she emerges from her silence. This is a great book discussion for 5th or 6th graders.

(Kathy Nuss from CLL/ Collection Assistant)

The Puzzling World of Winston Breen / Eric Berlin
FIC

Winston Breen finds puzzles everywhere. Solving them is what he does best. His sister uncovers mysterious wooden strips with words and letters that even Winston can't figure out. It turns out the strips are part of a scavenger hunt that a father set up for his children. If all four sets are put together, they will lead to a ring worth thousands of dollars.

(Library Page)

The Ring & the Crown / Melissa De la Cruz
FIC

A creative take on royal history, this historical fantasy follows the juicy intertwined exploits of teen socialites, royals, servants, and magicians.

(Bethany from SHL)

Sorta Like a Rock Star: A Novel / Matthew Quick
BCD, FIC

Amber Appleton is a stereotypical good girl. No lie. She's also homeless, upbeat, and unfailingly humorous, until something happens that changes her voice. Now it's her friends' turn to help her.

(Miss Jennie from WAM)

The Strange and Beautiful Sorrows of Ava Lavender / Leslye J. Walton
FIC

Like its title suggests, a strange and beautiful work of magical realism that will appeal as much, if not more, to adults as teens. It is a great choice for readers looking for fantasy more subtle and graceful than the more popular paranormals and vampire novels.

(Lauren from SLC)

Sunny Sweet is So Dead Meat / Jennifer Ann Mann
FIC

It's the day of Sunny's science fair, but Masha's little sister seems to be interested in anything but getting to the fair, and back home, without a fuss. From exploding ketchup bottles to coming face-to-face with the boy she likes, Masha's day just keeps getting worse and worse. Or does it?

(Miss Jennie from WAM)

To All the Boys I've Loved Before / Jenny Han
EB, FIC

Creative and quirky Lara Jean writes secret letters to every boy she's ever been in love with. Things get complicated when somehow the letters are mailed, and she has to face the boys from her past.
(Bethany from SHL)

Twisted Fairy Tales / Maura McHugh
FIC

Classic tales done in a whole new way, this book will entice you to rethink Rapunzel, the Red Shoes and more. A must read for all 'grown-up' lovers of fairytales.

(Loretta at FRA & RSV)

The Witch of Blackbird Pond / Elizabeth George Speare
BCD, EB, FIC, LT

Entertaining for any age!

(Beverley Ortman from RSV/Clerk)

